- 6.2. With the handing over of the goods the total risk, in particular the risk of loss by chance and transport is transferred to the Customer.

The Customer indemnifies ZRUNEK should these forms, production utilities and equipment which were produced or used according to proposals and designs of the Customer infringe intellectual property or rights of third persons. The costs for the recoupment, and/or repair of such forms, production utilities and other equipment which were damaged or destroyed as a result of force majeure are to be borne by the Customer.

At the risk of loss of any claims and right to damages, obvious defects shall be notified to ZRUNEK in writing, with a detailed description to ZRUNEK immediately, hidden defects immediately following identification.
- 8.2. If the Customer proves that he stored the goods properly (Point 2.3), ZRUNEK will at its discretion either cure the defects or supply fault-free goods instead of the faulty goods. - 9.2. Claims for damages of ZRUNEK vis-à-vis the purchasers or its Customer placing the order are excluded in the same proportion as those against the Customer. The Customer of ZRUNEK is furthermore obliged to similarly restrict possible claims of its purchasers in case of resale.
- 9.3. The liability for damages of ZRUNEK is according to the Product Liability Act excluded for damages without consideration for negligence to objects of an undertaking. Should ZRUNEK be liable jointly and severally with the purchaser and/or its successor according to the terms of the Product Liability Act, it is entitled to have recourse to any of them if it does not prove that the product fault resulting in damage was already in existence before ZRUNEK brought the product into commercial use and did not infringe its duty of giving due warning.
- 9.4. Claims for damage for infringement of a pre-contractual duty of warning by ZRUNEK can only be made if the Customer has notified the purpose of the goods to be supplied before the order is made in detail.
